SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Partido Comunista Obrero (PCO) is establishing a printing shop which will publish a newspaper to take the place of the PCO organ La Clase Obrera. The new publication, which will have no known Communists on its staff, will appear within two or three weeks under the name Humanidad. It will be under the direction of Carlos Delgado Nieto, who is not listed as a member of the Communist Party but is considered by the PCO to be a Communist sympathizer. At one time he was editor of the Boletin de Informacion issued by the Soviet Legation in Bogota.
2. The PCO hopes that the new printing concern, in addition to printing Humanidad and other PCO propaganda material, will also receive printing jobs from commercial firms in Bogota which have refused to advertise or support the Communist press.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
